PRESENTATION

City Council Representative Presentation (10 minutes if needed)

2019 Neighborhood Traffic Calming Applications

We will give a quick overview of the City Traffic Calming Program and discuss possible application ideas for this year. Here is the program website: <https://my.spokanecity.org/neighborhoods/programs/traffic-calming/>

We can submit one arterial and one residential street application. If we brainstorm through February we can vote in March and submit our applications by the March 15th deadline.

Land Use Committee Update

- Garden District PUD Decision Appeal
 - Appeal deadline is February 1st. We have heard that the developer intends to appeal the Hearing Examiner's decision from December. You can see that decision on the City's website here. We will provide an update at the Neighborhood Council meeting.
- Pedestrian Fatality on 57th
 - Last week Andrew Vathis, a courtesy clerk at Albertson's grocery store on 57th Ave., was hit by a vehicle while trying to cross 57th Avenue at Hailee Ln. The County has plans to add streetlights and improve pedestrian facilities along 57th from Perry to Palouse Hwy., we will get an update on those plans from the County.
