

Call for High School Artists: Riverfront Park Poster Contest for Gesa Pavilion Concert Series

Submissions due April 15

Spokane, Wash. – Riverfront Park invites Spokane County high school students to showcase their creativity and artistic talent in the Gesa Pavilion Rising Artists Poster Contest.

The winning design will serve as the official line-up poster for the 2026 Gesa Pavilion Concert Series at Riverfront Park.

This annual contest highlights emerging young artists and offers a unique opportunity to gain public recognition while contributing to one of Spokane’s most iconic community spaces. Students are encouraged to submit original artwork that captures the energy, vibrancy, and spirit of the Gesa Pavilion concert experience.

"Investing in the next generation is central to who we are, and the Gesa Pavilion Rising Artists Poster Contest is a wonderful example of that commitment," said Gesa VP of Community Impact Brandon Allison. "We're excited to support local Spokane students in showcasing their creativity while celebrating the arts and the place we call home."
